Austin O'Brien Catholic High School

Austin O'Brien Community: For everyone to enjoy Halloween and our costume day on October 30th please follow the guidelines listed below.

• Clothing must be in the spirit of school rules/dress code for appropriate dress. The administration reserves the right to discuss options with students inappropriately dressed for the day.

NO item of clothing may be worn, and no prop may be brought to school if it does any of the following:

•NO MASKS or any piece of costume that completely obscure the identity of the student; masks can only be worn if participating in the costume contest and during the judging of the contest if safety is not hindered.

•Costumes may not include props such as real, replicas, fake guns, knives/other weapons/dangerous objects or any item that is not allowed at school.

•Contains discriminatory, profane, vulgar, sexually suggestive, obscene, threatening or libelous language.

•May be construed as demeaning to any person or groups based on age, disability, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, nationality. race, religious, sex, sexual orientation or to any individual staff or student at the school.

Thank you,

Austin O'Brien
